Gnosis group is innovative and active

While the “Advanced Nutrition” concept promoted by Gnosis to improve well-being continues with the re-edition of the Adonat® WhitePaper, a new product containing Gnosis VitaMK7® is launched in China and Gnosis group starts a few building works to offer new services to its customers.

That’s why we feel so innovative and active!

Silvia Pisoni
Marketing Manager

Adonat® WhitePaper has been re-edited to host new important contents

Adonat® WhitePaper has been recently implemented with new contents from latest researches and clinical studies.

Adonat®, the commercially stable form of S-Adenosyl-Lmethionine (SAME), is one of the most studied and proven effective nutritional compounds produced by Gnosis to support mood, joint, liver health, anti-aging and longevity.

To find out what’s new and explore the complete product range of the Adonat® family, ask for a copy of the updated WhitePaper at marketing@gnosis-bio.com!
